

North West London
Integrated Care System

Working together for better health and care

North West
London AHPs

What might happen if.....?

An exploration of the potential impact of the NHSE AHP support workforce strategy for occupational therapy in North West London

Richard Griffin, Professor of Healthcare Management, Kings College London

Claire Fordham, NWL ICS AHP Workforce Transformation Lead

Richard.Griffin@kcl.ac.uk

Claire.fordham1@nhs.net

North West London
Integrated Care System

Working together for better health and care

North West
London AHPs

A growing & ageing population (55% growth in over 85 year-olds), with an increased burden of disease

Workforce shortages
20% OT vacancy

NHS

Health Education England

Allied Health Professions' Support Worker Competency, Education, and Career Development Framework

Realising potential to deliver confident, capable care for the future

www.hee.nhs.uk

We work with partners to plan, recruit, educate and train the health workforce.

North West London
Integrated Care System

Working together for better health and care

North West
London AHPs

Explore & quantify

Method

The benefits

- Creation of a stable supply pipeline and stable workforce that is representative of its local community
- A more engaged support workforce
- Releasing of time from registered staff through more effective delegation
- Reduced turnover and agency spend
- Improved patient outcomes
- 150 -200% return on investment over time

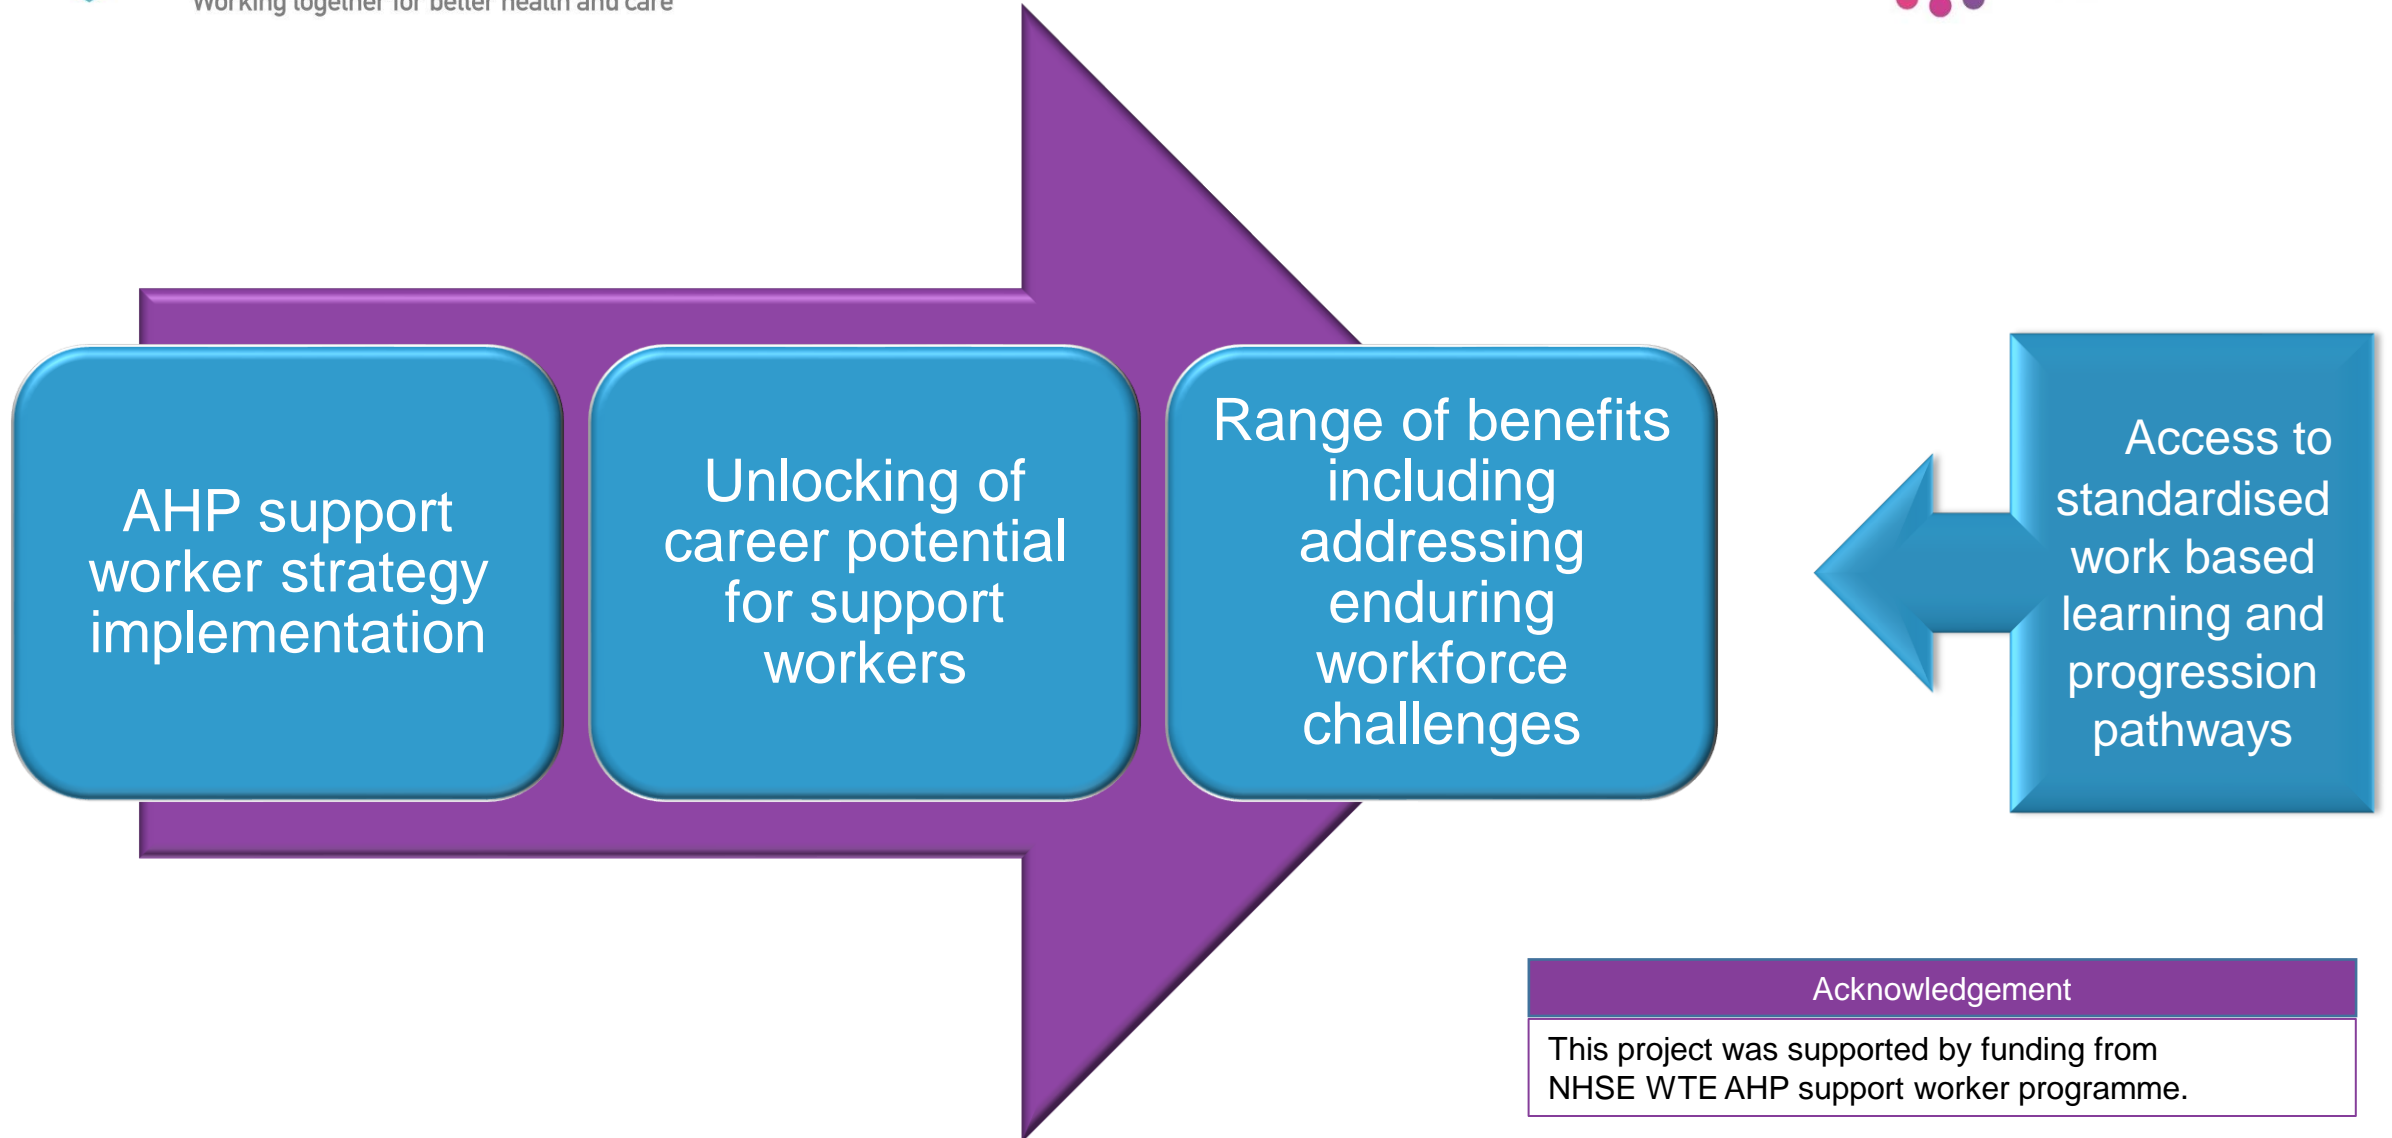

North West London
Integrated Care System

Working together for better health and care

North West
London AHPs

Acknowledgement

This project was supported by funding from NHSE WTE AHP support worker programme.