

Empowering and Inspiring the Future Healthcare Frontline

A first of its kind free, multi-disciplinary student conference

Future

Frontline

Who are we?

- Community interest company founded in 2020
- Aspiring students to professionals
- Empower interprofessional teamwork, friendship and leadership.
- Widening access into healthcare

Future Frontline

widening participation in healthcare leadership and career development

- free of charge for ALL 50 attendees.
- degree students and apprentices from across the multidisciplinary team
- workshops hackathons and keynote speakers.

Future Frontline

The UK's First Multi-disciplinary student conference

- 3 keynote talks from healthcare professionals on leadership and multi-disciplinary team working.
- 4 attendees were invited to give platform presentations
- Talks from the founders of Future Frontline on starting a healthcare non-for-profit.
- Hackathon focused on improving multi-disciplinary teamwork across healthcare

Outcomes and Discussion

● Demographic

- 50 Healthcare students
- 15 different healthcare degrees or apprenticeships
- 15 different universities across the UK
- 27% met widening participation criteria

● Feedback Forms

- 100% would recommend
- 4.73/5 usefulness
- Attendees' confidence in working in a multidisciplinary team increased from 2.84 out of 5 to 4.19 out of 5 after the conference.

● conclusion

- Encourage multi-disciplinary relationships
- learn from their healthcare peers
- conference presentation opportunity
- continuation of the conference and multidisciplinary events