

Join us for the annual NAEP Conference 2025 Empowering Futures: Integrating Education in Practice for Sustainable Workforce Development

Friday 7 March 2025 at The Studio, Birmingham B2 5EP

9am - 4pm

Conference 2025 aims:

- To bring together educational colleagues from all areas of health and social care to share experiences of supporting and developing a sustainable workforce.
- Reflect and rethink what is needed to ensure we have the capacity and quality of educators to enable delivery of growth in the health and social care workforce. Thus, providing appropriate and effective quality care now and in the future.

We welcome abstract submissions covering these broad conference themes:

- Sustaining the current workforce through education in practice.
- Enhancing training/educational opportunities in practice to create new ways of working.
- Integration of education at system level to enhance learning and practice.
- Co-producing education interventions with learners and/or service users.

Keynote Speaker – Professor Louise Younie: TEAM — Flourishing \(creativeenquiry.co.uk\)

We are delighted to host Professor Louise Younie to share her approaches for developing creative environments that nurture and sustain human flourishing.

During the session, delegates will be prompted to think about creative enquiry and co-creative methodologies to transform pedagogical practices at the front line.

Conference fees

- Face to face delegate package (including lunch and all refreshments on the day) £140 (discount for students)*
- Online streaming of keynote speakers and main room activities £70

* An opportunity to network with peers and share ideas for developing and sustaining workforce development

Visit our website for more information <https://naep-uk.org/>

SCAN ME